Arava International Center for Agriculture Training

SHORT TERM PROFESSIONAL COURSES

TAILOR-MADE COURSES DESIGNED ESPECIALLY TO SUIT YOUR GROUP!

AICAT - Arava International Center for Agriculture Training are pleased to offer tailor-made professional short term course in agriculture, rural development, leadership, management and entrepreneurship.

These professional programs are specially designed to suit each individual groups needs. They can be both here in Israel or the country where the group is based.

In Israel, courses can be from two days to two weeks and will be based in the Arava. For short term courses held outside of Israel, AICAT will provide a delegation composed of expert lecturers and professionals in the field of your choice, to the place of your choice.

AICAT - Arava International Center for Agriculture Training was established in 1994 with the support of the Israeli government and the local council. The Center trains annually over 1,100 students from academic institutes in 13 different countries worldwide. AICAT leads the way in modern agricultural training and has over 20,000 alumni worldwide!
